

S. Kann, Sons & Co.

Always the best of everything for the least money.

OPEN LATE TONIGHT.

The Busy Corner

PEACH SHERBET, per 5c.
Those with a sweet tooth can be supplied with the finest candies at almost one-fourth of their true worth. They are fresh, delicious and include Marshmallows, Pine Apple Croquettes, Cream Croquettes, Etc. Special price, 12c per pound.

Bargains That Pass In A Night.

Our doors remain open three hours longer this night. This affords the masses a chance that even on a share in. Every department displays its quota of leaders, and you can save a pocketbook full of money tonight. These specials until closing hour:

1c Odds and Ends in Madras String Ties; all desirable colors; patterns; sold for 18c. Boys' Window Ties; light and dark patterns.

3c Ladies' Ribbed Cotton Vests, low neck, sleeveless. Worth 5c. After inventory price.

3c Straw braids, all colors and decidedly pretty. After inventory price.

5c Silk Maline for trimming, in all colors. It sold originally at 25c a yard. After inventory price.

5c Men's Colored Bordered Handkerchiefs worth 18c. After inventory price.

5c Very fine quality flowers, worth triple the price. After inventory price, bunch.

7c An odd lot of Sleeveless Ribbed Cotton Vests, low neck, short, and low neck, no sleeves. Worth 12c. After inventory price.

8c Men's Fast Black Cotton Sox, full seamless, double toes and heels. Worth 12c. After inventory price.

10c Ladies' fine linen Initial Handkerchiefs—worth 18c. After inventory price.

10c Children's Fast Black Ribbed Cotton Hose, full seamless, spliced heels and toes, and double heels. Sizes 5 to 10. Worth 18c. After inventory price—per pair.

10c Flowers, the very likeness of nature's own products, very fine qualities and sold up to 18c. After inventory price, bunch.

25c Odds and Ends in Boys' Shirt Waists, in percale and plain white pleated fronts; also handkerchiefs and blouses; sold up to 75c.

25c A lot of untrimmed colored straw hats that couldn't be duplicated anywhere under 25c. They're perfect and stylish. After inventory price—and what a one it is.

25c All our Balbriggan Underwear—plain fancy, and colored—all sizes up to 50—never sold so low before. After inventory price.

25c Muslin Night Robes for men and boys—good muslin, silk-bordered fronts, silk stitching—very nice value. After inventory price.

29c All our Balbriggan Underwear—plain fancy, and colored—all sizes up to 50—never sold so low before. After inventory price.

39c Muslin Night Robes for men and boys—good muslin, silk-bordered fronts, silk stitching—very nice value. After inventory price.

S. KANN, SONS & CO.

8th and Market Space.

FIGHTING AGAINST A SALOON.

Dennis Fitzgerald seeks an injunction to restrain Mayor E. A. Tamm from allowing a saloon to be established at No. 14 G Street northwest.

The complainant alleges that he is the owner of Nos. 16 and 18 G Street northwest, residing with his family at the latter number. The entrance of both Nos. 16 and 18, he says, is within fifty feet of the entrance of the proposed saloon. This, he maintains, is in violation of law, and he filed a petition before the Excise Board, and requested that a liquor license be not issued for these premises. He also alleges that the entrance to No. 14 G Street is less than 400 feet from the nearest entrance to the Gales School building.

The application for a license for No. 14 G Street was made on May 2, 1899, and protests were filed two days later. A hearing was had before the Excise Board, and on May 27 the board refused to issue the license asked for. Without notice to the complainant the matter was reopened on July 25 last, and the board then allowed the license to be issued. It is claimed by the petitioner that the Excise Board had no authority to reopen the matter without the defendant having first complied with the law in relation to such affairs.

Opened to Foreign Trade.

Minister Conger, at Peking, China, reports to the State Department that he has received official notice of the formal opening to foreign trade of the port of San Tsun in the prefecture of Tu Ning in the province of Fukien.

FOR PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS

Major Sylvester Will Again Recommend Their Establishment.

Places for Children to Amuse Themselves in Various Parts of the City Desired—Spots Hitherto Set Aside Monopolized by Men and Boys—Provisions Made by Act of Congress.

Major Richard Sylvester, Superintendent of Police, in his forthcoming report will recommend and emphasize the recommendation which he made in his last annual report, in support of the establishment in various parts of the city of public playgrounds for children. The question has been agitated for several years. The contention of the Police Department is that as the city boys are prohibited from playing ball and other games in the streets, alleys, and vacant lots, a place should be provided where juvenile sports may be engaged in without interference from the police and without danger to public or private property.

The act of Congress approved August 20, 1890, provided that the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds within the District of Columbia, should be authorized to set aside a portion of the public grounds as a playground for children, this playground to be governed by such regulations as that officer should prescribe.

The southern portion of the Monument lot was designated for the purposes indicated, but no regulations were framed, as the act provided for no watchmen or additional policemen to see that such regulations should be observed. The watchman who is on duty at the Monument is said to be needed there constantly to protect the shaft from vandals. It was said at the time that the laws were being destroyed, the trees injured, and that the playground was infested with vicious persons. The Police Department was called on to relieve the grounds of the presence of these persons. In the fall of 1898 the site of the playground was transferred to the space between B Street and the main drive north of the Monument. There were eight acres in this plot, and it was practically monopolized by half-grown young men as a baseball and football field.

The act of Congress approved March 2, 1895, directed the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds to permit the use of a portion of the grounds within the ellipse south of the Executive Mansion, and notice was given that children under certain restrictions and who should be recommended by any reputable person would be permitted to play croquet, tennis, cricket, and kindred games, there. Only two requests for this privilege were made and none were granted, but the applicants never appeared on the grounds.

It was contemplated three or four years ago to transform the reservation at the intersection of Georgia and Virginia avenues into a playground, but the space was not fenced, and there was neither shade nor water there.

ON THE DIAMOND.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

Won. Lost. Per Ct.

Brooklyn.....61 30 .670

Boston.....56 34 .622

Philadelphia.....56 36 .609

Baltimore.....52 38 .578

St. Louis.....52 39 .571

Chicago.....49 40 .551

Cincinnati.....47 42 .528

Pittsburg.....46 45 .505

Louisville.....40 48 .455

New York.....35 53 .398

Washington.....34 58 .369

Cleveland.....16 78 .170

GAMES YESTERDAY.

Boston, 4; Washington, 3.

Philadelphia, 4; Baltimore, 3.

Brooklyn, 3; New York, 2.

Chicago, 8; St. Louis, 3.

GAMES TODAY.

Washington at Boston.

Brooklyn at New York.

Baltimore at Philadelphia.

St. Louis at Pittsburg.

Louisville at Cincinnati.

Washington looked like a winner all over until the last inning of the game with Boston at the Hub yesterday, when Weyhing, who had been pitching splendidly for his team up to the time, became wild and sent three men in a row to first on balls. Then Bergen loomed up with a hit, two men crossed the home plate, and the Senators were the victims of one of those old-time Boston finishes.

It was a hard game to lose, as Weyhing had all the better of the argument with Lewis, who was fought off enough during the six innings he was on the rubber for Washington to get and hold a slight lead up to the fatal ninth. Lefty Bailey, who succeeded Lewis, held the Senators down in great shape, not a Senator reaching second in the last three rounds.

The Senators were compelled to produce their best in the fielding line, but they were equal to the emergency and played without an error.

The Senators engage the attention of the Hubbers again this afternoon when Mercer will probably be on the rubber for Washington. The score:

BOSTON. R. B. P. O. A. E.

Hamilton, 1 1 1 0 0 0

O'Brien, 0 1 4 0 0 0

Long, 0 1 4 0 0 0

Collins, 0 1 0 1 2 0

Duffy, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Stahl, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Berge, 0 1 1 2 0 0

Wright, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Lewis, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Bayley, 0 1 0 1 0 0

Total, 4 5 27 9 0

WASHINGTON. R. B. P. O. A. E.

Slagle, 0 1 3 0 0 0

O'Brien, 0 0 0 0 0 0

McGinn, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Burner, 0 0 2 1 0 0

Owens, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Padden, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Atterton, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Kittling, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Weyhing, 0 0 0 0 0 0

Total, 0 0 7 7 2

*Winning run scored with two out.

Boston.....1 0 0 0 0 1 2-4

Washington.....1 0 0 0 1 1 0 0-1

Two-base hits—Slagle, McGinn. Three-base hits—Freeman, Long. Sacrifice hit—Tenney. Stolen bases—Freeman, Long. Errors—Slagle, O'Brien, Long. First base on errors—Slagle, O'Brien, Long. Left on base—Boston 4, Washington 4. Struck out—Freeman, Long, O'Brien, Tenney, Burns, and McGinn. Passed ball—Slagle. Hit by pitched ball—By Weyhing 2. Time of game—1:40. Umpire—Lynch and Connolly. Attendance, 2,500.

Philadelphia Beats Baltimore.

The Quakers succeeded in downing the Birds yesterday at Philadelphia. "Chick" Fraser did box duty for the Phillies and McGinnity performed stellar service for Baltimore, the former being more lucky than his opponent when men were on base.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her that she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her doctor suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use, and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Henry Evans' drug store, 928 F Street. Only 50 cents and $1; every bottle guaranteed.

Chilley's batting and Cross's fielding also aided the Quakers very materially, in earning a victory. The score:

Philadelphia.....0 1 0 0 1 1 0 0-2

Baltimore.....0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-1

First base on errors—Baltimore 1. Left on base—Philadelphia 4, Baltimore 4. Struck out—By McGinnity 4, off Fraser 4. Two-base hits—Chilley 2, Brodie. Sacrifice hit—Cross. Stolen bases—McFarland, Cross. Double plays—Lachner and McGinn. Coolley, Lachner and Cross. Hit by pitcher—By McGinnity 5, by Fraser 1. Wild pitch—McGinnity. Passed ball—McFarland. Umpire—Lynch and Connolly. Time of game—2 hours and 15 minutes.

Brooklyn Wins From New York.

Brooklyn won a close contest from New York yesterday at Gotham, but it was not on account of effective pitching by McGinnity, who was in the box for Brooklyn. Only fast fielding saved the Superbas. McGinnity nailed six men at second by great throws. Seymour was very puzzling to the Hanlonites, while McGinnity was batted very freely by the Giants. The score:

Brooklyn.....0 2 1 0 0 0 0 0-3

New York.....0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0-2

Two-base hits—Keeler, Dahler, Gettig. Sacrifice hit—Keeler. Stolen bases—McGinnity, Van Halbeur 2, Davis. Errors—Warner. First base on errors—New York 3. First base on balls—Off McGinnity 5, off Seymour 4. Struck out—By McGinnity 5, by Seymour 4. Double plays—McGinnity and McGinn. Coolley, Lachner and Cross. Hit by pitcher—By McGinnity 5, by Fraser 1. Wild pitch—McGinnity. Passed ball—McFarland. Umpire—Lynch and Connolly. Attendance, 3,100.

St. Louis Loses to Chicago.

The Orphans had very little trouble winning from the Indians at Chicago yesterday, batting Sudhoff safely when hits counted most. Taylor pitched for Chicago and kept the Teabaggers hits well scattered. The score:

Chicago.....0 2 0 2 0 0-3

St. Louis.....1 0 0 2 0 0 0 0-3

Stolen bases—Mertes. Sacrifice hits—Childs, McCormick, Naggon, Donnelly. Two-base hits—Childs, Heinrich, McGinn. First base on balls—Off Taylor 2, off Sudhoff 2. Struck out—By Taylor 1, by Sudhoff 1. Left on base—Chicago 5, St. Louis 4. Double plays—Childs and Tebeau. Time of game—1 hour and 40 minutes. Umpire—O'Day and McDonald.

THE JENNINGS DEAL.

Action of Vanderhorst in Making It Being Contemplated.

The "Baltimore Star" has worked up over the trade which took Jennings back to the ranks of the Birds. In speaking of the game between Baltimore and Philadelphia yesterday, the "Star" sarcastically says: "A strolling band of baseball players, claiming membership in the National League, but whose identity has not been clearly established, played a game against the Philadelphia League Club here yesterday. Philadelphia won by the score of 4 to 3. It is asserted that the strange band came from Baltimore. McGraw and Robinson, who once were with the Orioles team, played on the side of the visitors."

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

"The public will wonder a little just how Mr. Hanlon was persuaded to trade such a valuable man for two worthless players, thus strengthening Baltimore at Brooklyn's expense. Whatever may be the relative merits of the players, the baseball public all over the country will look with suspicion on a 'trade' that was forced upon the Baltimore manager against his will by the Brooklyn 'magnate.'"

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

"The public will wonder a little just how Mr. Hanlon was persuaded to trade such a valuable man for two worthless players, thus strengthening Baltimore at Brooklyn's expense. Whatever may be the relative merits of the players, the baseball public all over the country will look with suspicion on a 'trade' that was forced upon the Baltimore manager against his will by the Brooklyn 'magnate.'"

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Mr. Vanderhorst in his estimate of the value of ballplayers. Mr. Vanderhorst denies that he ever said that no exchanges should take place between Brooklyn and Baltimore, his promise being that no trade which would weaken Baltimore should be made, and that the present "trade" strengthened the Orioles.

Pabst Brands....

All our new brews have stood the test.

A single trial has convinced the most skeptical.

Connoisseurs have pronounced them ideal.

Each brand is individually different, but equal in quality.

They cannot excel each other, because all are perfect.

Our Motto—Purity, Perfection

—is thus established.

Perhaps you have not yet tried our new brews?

You will be pleased with the delicious flavor.

The best is not too good for our patrons.

Our drivers are careful, courteous and prompt.

All departments of the Pabst Brewing Co.'s great plant at Milwaukee, Wis., are open to the inspection of visitors every day except Sunday.

DOCTOR MARTIN'S

HOMEOPATHIC

100 REMEDIES 100

Not Cure-Alls

A Different Cure for Each Disease

35 Different Cures for 100 Different Diseases

Dr. Martin's Rheumatism Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Female Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Female Tablets.....10c

Dr. Martin's Blood and Skin Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Dyspepsia and Indigestion Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Kidney Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Heart Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Catarrh Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Catarrh Tablets.....10c

Dr. Martin's Nerve Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Cholera Morbus Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Headache Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Diarrhoea and Dysentery Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Liver and Constipation Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Cough Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Cold and Grippe Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Baby Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Group Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Chills and Fever and Malaria Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Bladder Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Neuralgia Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Worm Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Menstrual Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Whooping Cough Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Gonorrhea Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Sore Throat Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Hoarseness Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's General Debility Cure.....10c

Dr. Martin's Investigator.....10